ABOUT THE COVER

There have been some great major leaguers to play second base for the Chicago Cubs over the years, including two Hall of Famers. The 1986 Media Guide cover is a tribute to the five greatest second basemen in Cubs history—Johnny Evers, Billy Herman, Kenny Hubbs, Glenn Beckert and Ryne Sandberg. The cover is an oil painting by artist Jim Devine of Buffalo, WY.

The 1986 Chicago Cubs Media Guide was produced by the organization's media relations and publications departments. It is based on information available through February 5, 1986.

DALLAS GREEN

PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Dallas Green enters his second season as the Cubs president—and his fifth as the team's general manager—with some impressive achievements. Two years ago the Chicago Cubs were the National League's Eastern Division champions, the first Cubs team since 1945 to be in post-season play. Last season, for the second year in a row, the Cubs broke their all-time attendance record at Wrigley Field with a final paid total of 2,161,534.

But that was 1984 and 1985. This is 1986 and the challenge of returning the Cubs to post-season glory rests with him daily. It won't be easy, but then that doesn't discourage Green. It has been part of his upbringing in professional baseball, dating back to when he was a pitcher for the Philadelphia Phillies.

"I was always the 25th player when I played," Green recalled. "I never had a job waiting for me in spring training. Never. It was always a battle, battle, battle type of thing. . .always up and down (12 different cities in his playing career). I know what it's like. Challenges don't bother me."

Green has made his presence felt on the Cubs roster. Entering the 1986 campaign only three players—Jody Davis, Leon Durham and Lee Smith—were wearing a Cubs uniform prior to Green's arrival in October of 1981. Only two other regulars, Keith Moreland and Ryne Sandberg, have played for the Cubs during the past four seasons. The trade in December of 1981 for Moreland, and the deal of January, 1982 which brought over Sandberg, are certainly at the top of Green's best moves. Both players have batted over .300 twice and Sandberg won the 1984 Most Valuable Player Award in the National League. In 1985, Sandberg hit .305 with 26 homers, 83 RBI and stole 54 bases. Moreland hit .307 with 106 RBI.

In 1984, Green was named baseball's Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, United Press International and ESPN-TV. He also received the Will Harridge Achievement Award at the annual Diamond Dinner in Chicago. He was named Chicagoan of the Year by the Chicago Press Club.

Tribune Company named him club president on December 18, 1984, succeeding Jim Finks, who had resigned. Green retained the title of general manager, a position he has held since being named Executive Vice President and General Manager on October 15, 1981.

Before he came to Chicago, Dallas had steadily climbed the organizational ladder of the Philadelphia Phillies. He worked his way up from the bottom of that organization, all the while gaining valuable knowledge and insight at every stop. His efforts reached a climax in 1980 when Green managed the Phillies to the World Championship. Ironically the club he beat was Kansas City, managed by Jim Frey, whom he hired to manage the Cubs in the fall of 1983. The World Series title was the only one for that franchise in more than 100 years. In 1983, Green was recognized for this achievement when Phillie fans named him the manager of the Philadelphia Centennial Team.

Actually, Green's baseball career began on the pitching mound. He played 5½ years in the Phillies farm system beginning in 1955, then spent six years (1960-64 and 1967) with the parent team. In between there were short coffee stops with the Washington Senators (1965) and the New York Mets (1966). He retired in 1967 after pitching in eight games with the Phillies. His lifetime major league record was 20-22 despite a fastball that was compared to some of the hardest-throwing pitchers of his era.

After his playing career ended in 1967, Green served in the Phil's farm system as the Reading, PA (Eastern League) player-pitching coach the remainder of that season. In 1968 he managed Huron, SD (Northern League) and the following year piloted Pulaski, VA. In 1970 he became the assistant to Paul Owens, the club's director of minor leagues. From there he moved quickly to the top of that department when Owens was elevated to the director of personnel in June of 1972.

Green held that position until August 31, 1979 when he replaced Danny Ozark as Phillies manager and finished with a 19-11 record the remainder of the season. That "interim" position soon became permanent. . .and very successful. In his first full season at the helm in 1980, Green finished with a 91-71 mark, good enough to win the N.L. Eastern Division. Next it was on to the League Championship Series and victory over Houston. Finally there was the dramatic World Series triumph over the Kansas City Royals in six games. That accomplishment made him only the fourth rookie big league manager to win a World Series, the others being Bucky Harris (1924 Washington Senators), Eddie Dyer (1946 St. Louis Cardinals) and Ralph Houk (1961 New York Yankees).

Green was born August 4, 1934 in Newport, Delaware and attended the University of Delaware, where he received a Bachelor's degree in 1981. He first signed with the Phillies in 1955 after his junior year at Delaware and reported to Reidsville, NC.

Dallas married the former Sylvia Taylor in 1958. They have four children—Dana, John, Kim and Douglas. The Greens still own a 30-acre farm in West Grove, PA but maintain a residence in Winnetka, IL.

WRIGLEY FIELD—HOME OF THE CUBS

Last season the Cubs celebrated their 70th anniversary of playing at Wrigley Field. The facility was originally known as Weeghman Park and the first National League game was played there on April 20, 1916 when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds, 7-6, in 11 innings. The park was officially named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley, Jr., the club's owner.

Wrigley Field was built in 1914 with a capacity of 14,000. It was built to house the Chicago Whales of the newly formed Federal League, a circuit which would last only two years before folding for financial reasons. Chicago's entry at that time was nicknamed the Chiefs and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman, a wealthy restaurant chain owner. Weeghman Park, as it was known, would change its name to Cubs Park, and later Wrigley Field.

The cost of building Weeghman Park was estimated at $250,000 and at one time there were 490 men working on the project. More than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass were brought into the park.

Although many improvements have been made to the park in the last two decades, increasing comfort and convenience for the spectators, Wrigley Field has remained virtually untarnished by the pervading force of technology. The only ballpark without artificial lighting, the only park with ivy covering the outfield walls, lives on, much the same as it was when it opened in 1914. It is one of the few remaining parks in the major leagues that was designed for the sole purpose of playing baseball.

Wrigley Field is a place which has given us such historic moments as:

- Babe Ruth supposedly pointing to a spot where he then proceeded to hit Charlie Root's next pitch.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin."
- The great 1917 pitching duel between Fred Toney (Reds) and Jim "Hippo" Vaughn, Toney winning on a no-hitter in the 10th inning.

The Cubs' famed "Murderers Row" of Rogers Hornsby, Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stephenson and Charlie Grimm left behind many a memory at Wrigley Field; pitchers like Grover Cleveland Alexander, Dizzy Dean, Claude Passeau, Charlie Root, Larry French and Bill Lee toed the pitching rubber at Wrigley Field; and visiting players like Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Mel Ott, Bill Terry, Frankie Frisch, the Waner brothers, Jimmy Foxx, Honus Wagner and Mickey Cochrane, to name a few, graced the playing surface at Wrigley Field.

One of the earlier traditions of the park which still remains today is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game to inform passersby of the outcome of the day's contest. A blue flag with a white "W" indicates victory; a flag with a blue "L" denotes a loss. To inform night travelers of the results, a new innovation was added in 1978—a blue light atop the scoreboard signals victory and a white light indicates defeat.

The Wrigley Field scoreboard was constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved bleacher seating. Except for a few touches of modernization here and there—like the electronic message board—the original scoreboard remains intact, a reminder of the past when baseball did not resort to gimmickry, a board put together during a period of time when man knew nothing about instant replays and fireworks coming out of scoreboards.

The score-by-innings as well as the pitcher's numbers are all changed by hand. The numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with the occasional use of the H & E to signify hit and error are "eyelits" rather than electronic lights. There are no bulbs used, although to someone sitting in the box seats or grandstands it does appear that there are tiny lightbulbs.

In recent years, improvements have been made to the park to make an afternoon at Wrigley Field a comfortable and enjoyable experience. The seats in the lower grandstand down both foul lines have been turned in so that the fans sitting in those areas could easily see home plate. The upper deck was also completely restructured (a project which took four years beginning in 1968). Plastic, self-rising contour seats were installed in the lower deck reserved seating area, replacing folding chairs. In 1981-82, new office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate. In 1983, a new ticket office was built directly behind home plate. During the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands.

FACTS ABOUT WRIGLEY FIELD

Did you know that:
1. No batted baseball has ever hit the centerfield scoreboard. Two balls barely missed it, clearing the bleachers and landing on Waveland and Sheffield Avenues. One ball was hit by Roberto Clemente to right-center; the other by Bill "Swish" Nicholson, to left-center.
2. The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in 1938. Veeck first brought Bittersweet and strung it from the top of the wall to the bottom. Meanwhile, Veeck planted the ivy at the base of the wall.
3. The entire bleacher wall is 11 feet high. The basket attached to the wall was constructed in 1970.
4. Ernie Banks is the only Cubs player to have his uniform number (14) retired. It is imprinted on the flag which hangs from the leftfield foul pole.
5. A live Cub bear was in attendance at the very first National League game played at Wrigley Field (then Weeghman Park) in 1916.

HIGHLIGHTS IN CUBS HISTORY

Dallas Green became the Cubs President and Chief Executive Officer on December 18, 1984 when he replaced Jim Finks, who resigned from that position effective December 31, 1984. Green also retained his title as General Manager of the Cubs.

The Cubs won their first National League Eastern Division championship in 1984 when they compiled a 96-65 record. It was the first time since the 1945 season that the Cubs advanced into post-season competition. The 96 victories were also the most by a Cubs team since the 1945 club went 98-56.

Jim Finks was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of the Cubs on September 21, 1983.

Tribune Company acquired the Cubs in August of 1981 for $20.5 million after the Wrigley Family had sold the team, with principal stockholder William Wrigley passing on controlling interest on June 16, 1981.

The new era of the Cubs, or as it would later be called "Building A New Tradition", was ushered in by Cubs Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, Andrew J. McKenna, and Stanton R. Cook, President and CEO of Tribune Company. On October 15, 1981, Dallas Green became the chief architect of the "New Tradition" when he was named the Cubs Executive Vice-President and General Manager. Green, who had been the driving force as field manager of the 1980 World Champion Philadelphia Phillies, named Lee Elia, a former Phils third base coach, as the club's manager. Although a new era began in the fall of 1981, the tradition and rich heritage of Wrigley Field and Cubs teams of the past have not been forgotten. Of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city in which they were franchised.

The creation of the National League in 1876 is largely credited to William A. Hulbert, the first president of the Chicago club. Until his death in 1882, he held the dual role of league president and club president. With the assistance of Albert G. Spalding, the team's first manager, Hulbert drafted the National League constitution and by-laws in 1875. Over 100 years later, these rules have almost remained unchanged.

In 1907 "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team. Although nicknames were not official in the early years of the league, the Chicago club was first dubbed with "White Stockings". After 1890, the most popular nicknames for the team were "Colts" and "Orphans". Legend has it that a newspaper writer first used the "Cubs" name on March 27, 1902 while searching for a short name to fit a headline.

The Wrigley family's involvement with the Cubs started after the 1915 season when William Wrigley Jr. and a group of Chicago businessmen purchased the team from the Taft family of Cincinnati. In 1921, Wrigley became majority stockholder. After his death in 1932, his interest passed to his son Philip K. Wrigley. Upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ball club was left to William Wrigley. The sale of the club by William Wrigley in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in the same city in major league baseball history.

NOTES ON CUBS HISTORY

The Cubs set a city and franchise home attendance record by drawing 2,161,534 paid fans to Wrigley Field in 1985. They also led the National League in road attendance by attracting a club record 2,255,306. It was the second time in club history that the Cubs surpassed the two million mark in home attendance. The Cubs smashed all previous attendance records in 1984 by drawing 2,107,655 fans. The 1985 Cubs also set a club total attendance record of 4,416,840 surpassing the previous high, 4,106,588, which was also established in 1984.

The 1985 Cubs led the league with 150 homers, their highest total since 1970. They also stole 182 bases, the highest total for a Cubs team since the 1911 team stole 214.

Ryne Sandberg became the third player in major league history to hit 25 or more homers and steal 50 or more bases in a season. In 1985 he hit 26 homers and stole 54 bases. Davey Lopes became the first player in baseball history to steal more than 28 bases at the age of 39. He swiped 47. Thad Bosley led the majors in pinch hits on the way to establishing a club record with 20. He became the 17th player in history to have 20 or more in a season. On May 10, 1985 in San Diego, Larry Bowa played in his 2,154th major league game at shortstop, the most by a National League player at that position. The record was held by Rabbit Maranville.

In 110 National League seasons, the Cubs have played 16,104 games and won 8,304 (151 were tied), both lifetime and major league records.

The Cubs, as a team, have hit 100 or more home runs in 33 of their last 35 seasons.

The Cubs clinched their first National League Eastern Division title in Pittsburgh on September 24, 1984 as Rick Sutcliffe downed the Pirates, 4-1, on a 2-hitter. Joe Orsulak struck out to end the game. Gary Matthews collected the game-winning RBI.

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg collected two late-inning homers against St. Louis in one of the most memorable games ever played at Wrigley Field. Sandberg led off the 9th inning with a solo home run against Bruce Sutter to tie the game at 9-9, then hit a 2-run, two-out homer—again off Sutter—in the 10th to tie the game at 11-11. The Cubs won the game, 12-11, in the 11th on a single by Dave Owen. On the afternoon, Sandberg went 5-for-6 with 2 homers and 7 RBI.

The 1984 Cubs allowed just 99 home runs, the lowest amount since 1953.

The Cubs won 19 games in their final at-bat in 1984.

Six members of the Cubs had 80 or more RBI in 1984. The last National League team to have that many with 80 or more RBI in the same season was the 1969 Cincinnati Reds.

Ryne Sandberg came within a triple and a home run of becoming the first player in major league history to collect 200 hits and 20 or more homers, triples, doubles and stolen bases in the same season.

Cubs hit the 8,000 victory mark on May 13, 1982 against the Houston Astros in the Astrodome. Allen Ripley was the winning pitcher for the Cubs that day. This is the most wins ever by a pro franchise in one city.

Ernie Banks became the first Cub to ever have his uniform (#14) retired on August 22, 1982.

On May 25, 1982, against San Diego at Jack Murphy Stadium, Fergie Jenkins became only the 7th man in baseball history to record 3,000 strikeouts.

The all-time major league record for wins in a season and winning percentage in a season is held by the 1906 Cubs, who won 116 and lost 36, for a .763 percentage.

On September 26, 1908, Cubs pitcher Ed Reulbach pitched both ends of a doubleheader against Brooklyn, shutting them out by scores of 5-0 and 3-0.

The largest crowd ever to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field was 51,556 on June 27, 1930, against Brooklyn. Of that number, 30,476 were Ladies Day guests and 1,332 passholders, so the official paid crowd that day was only 19,748.

On August 17-18, 1982 the Dodgers beat the Cubs 2-1 in a 21-inning game that was the second longest game played in Cubs history, tying a 21-inning affair in 1918 against Philadelphia and falling one shy of the club's all-time record of 22-innings set on May 22, 1927 when the Cubs defeated Boston 4-3 in Boston. The 21-inning contest also ties a record for most innings played by a Cubs team at home. On July 17, 1918 the Cubs beat Philadelphia 2-1 in a 21-inning game played in Chicago.

The 1935 Cubs set the record for consecutive wins in a season with 21 in a row.

The 1945 Cubs helped themselves to the National League pennant as they swept 19 doubleheaders and split 10.

The 1958 Cubs hit 182 homers during the season to establish the club record.

Ernie Banks hit the 500th home run of his career into the leftfield bleachers on May 12, 1970 off Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.

The largest Opening Day crowd at Wrigley Field, 45,777, attended the 1978 home opener vs. Pittsburgh on April 4.

During the 1982 campaign, the Cubs hit into two triple plays, both against the New York Mets. On August 3, at Wrigley Field, Larry Bowa hit into a triple play that went from SS Bob Bailor to 2B Wally Backman to 1B Dave Kingman. On September 29 in New York, Keith Moreland hit into another triple play, 2B Brian Giles unassisted to 1B Rusty Staub. The Cubs won both games, 5-0 and 4-1, respectively.

A LOOK AT 1985

The Chicago Cubs 1985 season began and ended full of promise only to be sidetracked by a rash of injuries that made the heart of the season a lesson in frustration.

When the Cubs opened the season as defending National League Eastern Division champions, it appeared as if President and General Manager Dallas Green had improved an already solid and successful product.

The off-season acquisitions fortified the Cubs lefthanded pitching as well as the bench. The Cubs were also looking forward to having pitchers Rick Sutcliffe and Dennis Eckersley with the team from the outset of the season.

At the close of the 1985 season the Cubs were once again looking forward - this time to 1986 - with the promise of young players like shortstop Shawon Dunston and reliever Jay Baller and the hopes that their injured players will return to their 1984 form.

The Cubs finished in fourth place with a 77-84 record. But even through a season that didn't quite unfold as planned, there were many bright spots and encouraging performances.

Ryne Sandberg, coming off his 1984 Most Valuable Player season, had another outstanding year. He batted .305 and continued to write his way into the baseball record books. He hit 26 homers, the most by a Cubs second baseman since Rogers Hornsby had 39 in 1929. He also stole 54 bases, the most by a Cub since Frank Chance stole 57 in 1906. The homer and stolen base totals made Sandberg the third player in baseball history to have 25 or more home runs and 50 or more stolen bases. He also became the first Cub in 15 years to score more than 100 runs in consecutive seasons.

His counterpart was Keith Moreland. Moreland proved invaluable to the Cubs in 1985. Not only did he produce offensively, but he played third base, first base and caught besides playing his usual rightfield position. Keith led the club with a .307 average and had a career-high 106 RBI. His clutch performance was second to none. He batted better than .350 with runners in scoring position.

Shawon Dunston, 22, started the season in the major leagues before being returned to the Cubs Iowa (AAA) club. He batted just .194 during the first six weeks of the season. After he returned in mid-August he batted .287.

Jay Baller, 25, was given an opportunity to work in middle relief. He responded with a very strong September including a shutout string of 20.2 innings.

Baller proved to be an able set-up man for Lee Smith. Lee equalled his career single-season high with 33 saves and became the first Cubs reliever to post consecutive 30-save seasons.

The Cubs also received very good seasons from a pair of parttime players, Davey Lopes and Thad Bosley.

Lopes became a full-time player in June and July when injuries began taking hold in the outfield. Overall, he batted .284 with 11 homers and 47 stolen bases. He became the first player in baseball history to steal more than 28 bases at the age of 39.

Bosley led the majors in pinch hits on the way to establishing a team record with 20. He became the 17th player in baseball history to have 20 or more in a season. He also added three pinch homers - the most by a Cub since 1969 when Willie Smith accomplished it.

Overall, the club showed both power and speed. The Cubs led the league with 150 homers, their highest total since 1970. They also stole 182 bases, the highest total for a Cub team since the 1911 team stole 214.

The Cubs continued to be one of the best attractions in the game. They set a city and franchise attendance record by drawing 2,161,534 paid fans to Wrigley Field. They also led the National League in road attendance by attracting a club record 2,255,306.

Moreland and Sandberg led the club in virtually every offensive category. Moreland led the team in average (.307), games (161), RBI (106) and game-winning hits (12), the latter two both career highs.

Sandberg paced the Cubs in at-bats (609), hits (186), triples (6), homers (26), total bases (307) and stolen bases (54).

Leon Durham led the club with 32 doubles, one in front of Sandberg and two in front of Jody Davis and Moreland. Ron Cey finished with 22 homers - one shy of a career total of 300.

Unfortunately, the most imposing numbers reflective of the Cubs 1985 season were related to injuries.

Overall, the Cubs original starting four pitchers (Rick Sutcliffe, Dennis Eckersley, Steve Trout and Scott Sanderson) missed 52 starting assignments and were all on the disabled list in August. The fifth starter, Dick Ruthven, also missed an additional nine starts. After the All-Star Break, the original four starting pitchers started only 27 of 72 games. The Cubs also lost another 242 games from their position players due to injuries.

JIM FREY MANAGER

James Gottfried Frey was born in Cleveland, OH on May 26, 1931. He and his wife Joan have four children, Jim, Cindy, Mary and Jennifer and they reside in Timonium, MD during the off-season.

With only two seasons of managing the Chicago Cubs under his belt, Jim Frey already has carved out an important position in the club's history. Coming into the 1986 season, Frey has won 173 games, putting him in the 15th spot among modern day Cub managers in terms of victories. His .537 winning percentage (173-149) is surpassed by only three other Cub managers since 1900. Not since Joe McCarthy posted a .579 percentage (442-321) from 1926-1930 has a Cubs pilot been as successful as Frey. That was 24 managers ago if you include the era of the College of Coaches in the early 1960s.

Although Frey was disappointed in last season's fourth place finish in the National League East (77-84), he understands that there were several things which contributed greatly to the demise of the 1984 Eastern Division champions. Losing an entire five-man pitching rotation to injuries, including 1984 Cy Young Award winner Rick Sutcliffe, didn't leave Frey with enough healthy hands. By season's end, the Cubs had employed 20 pitchers during the campaign, many of whom were recalled from Triple A. Six pitchers, in fact, won for the first time in their major league careers in 1985 with the Cubs. Throw in key injuries to Gary Matthews, Bobby Dernier, Jody Davis—even second baseman Ryne Sandberg missed an entire week—and it was easy to understand why the Cubs struggled.

Through the first third of the season (54 games), Frey had maneuvered the club into a first place lead of 3½ games despite a prolonged team batting slump and injuries in May to Sutcliffe, Sandberg and Matthews. Up until then, the general consensus was that the Cubs had an excellent chance of repeating their exciting 1984 season. In winning 96 games that season, Frey had the distinction of posting the highest victory total by a Cubs team since Charlie Grimm's 1945 club went 98-56. Not so ironically, that 1945 team was the last club to get into post-season competition until the '84 group made it into the playoffs against San Diego. Only eight other Cub teams in history had won more games than the 1984 Cubs of Jim Frey—and five of those clubs did it from 1906-1910.

In the winter of 1985, Frey was recognized for this achievement by his peers. Five organizations honored him as their National League Manager of the Year. Those groups were the Baseball Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Associated Press, United Press International and ESPN-TV.

Frey's managing career with the Cubs began on October 6, 1983 when interim manager Charlie Fox returned to the Cubs front office. It marked Frey's first experience as a major league manager in the National League after having served as the pilot of the Kansas City Royals in 1980 and part of 1981. Jim directed the Royals to the 1980 American League pennant, then lost a six-game World Series to Philadelphia and then manager Dallas Green, now his boss in Chicago The Royals had a 97-65 record in 1980. Frey had a 30-40 mark with Kansas City in 1981 when he was replaced, including a 10-10 record in the second half of the strike-shortened season. K.C. was only one-half game out of first place in the second half when Frey was replaced by Dick Howser on August 31. He was the American League manager in the 1981 All-Star Game.

Prior to his first major league managerial opportunity in Kansas City, Frey spent 15 years in the Baltimore Orioles system, beginning in 1964 after retiring as an active player. He stayed with the O's until leaving for the K.C. job after the 1979 season. Frey was hired by former New York Mets manager George Bamberger as the Mets batting coach in 1982 and continued those duties, plus coaching first base in New York during 1983. Frey and Bamberger, now manager of the Milwaukee Brewers, coached together in Baltimore.

Although he played professional baseball as an outfielder for 14 seasons, Frey never made it to the big leagues despite a lifetime batting average of .302. Frey won two batting titles in the minor leagues, in 1957 while playing in the Texas League, and in 1960 while in the International League. He was the Texas League's MVP in '57, leading the circuit in seven offensive categories. Frey attended Ohio State University and was originally signed by the Paducah, KY team of the Mississippi-Ohio Valley League in 1950. Frey's best season in the minors was in '57 when he batted .336 for Tulsa, leading the league in runs (102), hits (198), doubles (50) and triples (11).

Prior to his coaching stint with Baltimore, where he served as a hitting instructor for 10 seasons, bullpen coach (1970-75) and first base coach (1976-79), Frey scouted for the Orioles from 1966-69. He managed the club's rookie league team in Bluefield, WVA in 1964-65.

In Chicago, Frey was reunited with Billy Connors, who served as his pitching coach in Kansas City. Frey also hired Don Zimmer to coach third base in 1985. Zimmer was a schoolboy chum of Frey's. The two began playing sandlot baseball in the Cincinnati area at age 13 and played on the same high school and American Legion teams as teenagers. At Western Hill High School (graduate, 1949), Frey played first base and pitched while Zimmer played shortstop. Frey and Zimmer are just two of the Western Hills alumni who later played in the Major Leagues. . .others include Pete Rose, Eddie Brinkman, Russ Nixon, Dick Drott, Herm Wehmeier and Art Mahaffey.

Jim enjoys golf in the off-season and is also an avid reader of history books, particularly those concerning World War II and the Civil War. He was also a participant on the Cubs Winter Caravan in January for the third consecutive year.

COACHING STAFF

RUBEN AMARO

Ruben Amaro (Mora) was born in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico on January 7, 1936. He and his wife Judy have two children, David and Ruben, and reside in Philadelphia, PA during the off-season.

Ruben will begin his fourth season as a member of the Cubs coaching staff in 1986. The past two seasons, Amaro has assisted manager Jim Frey in the dugout and will continue that responsibility this year. In his first season with the Cubs he was the team's third base coach.

During the winter months, Ruben has served as the manager and general manager of the Zulia Eagles of Maracaibo in the Venezuelan League. During the winter of 1983-84, Ruben guided Zulia to the Venezuelan League title and also to the Caribbean World Series. Last year Zulia failed to make the playoffs but finished only eight games behind first place Aragua.

Ruben played several positions during his minor and major league career but was primarily regarded as a shortstop. Signed by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1954, Amaro first made it to the big leagues in 1958 with the Cards. Later that season he was traded to the Phillies and played in their farm system until making the major league team in 1960. He played six consecutive seasons in Philadelphia, hitting a major league career-high of .264 in 1964. That same season he also won a N.L. Gold Glove for his shortstop work in 129 games.

Amaro later played for the New York Yankees (1966-68) and California Angels (1969), his last season in the major leagues. He retired as an active player in 1972 to join Philadelphia as a scout. His career major league batting average is .234.

Amaro caught the eye of Philadelphia's management in 1959 while at Buffalo, where he led International League shortstops in double plays with 84. In addition to his experience as a player, scout and coach, Amaro also managed the Phillies Auburn farm club in the New York-Penn League in 1977.

Prior to coming to the Cubs, Amaro was the first base coach of the Philadelphia Phillies in 1980 and 1981, both seasons under Phillies manager Dallas Green, now President and General Manager of the Cubs.

From 1972 through 1974 he was an assistant to Dallas Green, then director of Minor Leagues and Scouting for the Phillies. Ruben was also the Phillies coordinator of Latin American affairs from 1974-1980 and was responsible for the signing of Willie Hernandez, Jorge Bell, Juan Samuel and Julio Franco.

BILLY CONNORS

William Joseph Connors III was born in Schenectady, NY on November 2, 1941. He is single and resides in St. Petersburg, FL during the off-season.

Billy Connors will be in his fifth season as the Cubs pitching coach, second only to Los Angeles' Ron Perranoski in terms of longevity among National League pitching mentors. Perranoski is in his sixth season with the Dodgers. Philadelphia's Claude Osteen is also in his fifth season.

Connors has earned the reputation of being able to draw the most from each of his pitchers. Nearly half of the pitchers Connors has coached while with the Cubs have had their best major league season in terms of wins, ERA or saves.

Prior to joining the Cubs staff in 1982, Connors was credited with developing a staff that carried the Kansas City Royals to the American League Championship in 1980 under manager Jim Frey. Before coaching at Kansas City, Billy spent five years coaching in the New York Mets' organization and three in the Philadelphia Phillies' system.

Through the years Connors has worked at various jobs. Among those were: private detective, substitute school teacher, amateur basketball referee, Italian restaurant waiter and Civil Defense worker. Billy has also worked in the oil fields of Odessa and Midland, TX.

Connors began his major league career in 1966 when he pitched in 11 games under Cubs manager Leo Durocher (0-1 record). He also made brief appearances with the Mets in 1967 (six games) and 1968 (nine games). His lifetime M.L. record is 0-2.

Billy began his professional career in the Cubs farm system as an infielder-pitcher. He once teamed with the late Kenny Hubbs as a double play combination in 1961. In 1962 he also added catching and outfielding to increase his versatility but finally settled on pitching in 1963. That season for Wenatchee of the Northwest League he was 12-11 and was 7th in league ERA with a 3.22 mark. His 2.60 ERA with Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League in 1966 was the fourth best mark in that loop. Prior to his pro career, Connors was a two-sport standout at Syracuse University. He captained the freshman basketball team and in his sophomore season helped the Orangemen baseball team to a NCAA district title and a third place finish in the College World Series.

Connors was Player of the Year in 1959 at Linton High School in Schenectady, NY in both basketball and baseball. Billy pitched the semifinal games in the 1953 and 1954 Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA. He won both games for Schenectady. After losing the 1953 championship game, 1-0, Schenectady won the title in 1954 with a 7-5 victory over the Colton, CA team that included Kenny Hubbs.

His hobbies include racquetball and golf. Billy also trains his pet parrot, "Lucy", in the winter months.

JOHNNY OATES

Johnny Lane Oates was born in Sylva, NC on January 21, 1946. He and his wife Gloria and their three children, Lori, Andy and Jenny reside in Wilmette during the off-season.

Johnny Oates will be on board for his third season as the Cubs bullpen coach in 1985. Already his work with catchers Jody Davis and Steve Lake has returned positive results defensively the past two seasons and Oates hopes for continued improvement in that area in 1986.

Prior to joining Jim Frey's staff in 1984, Oates managed for two seasons in the New York Yankees farm system. In 1983 he managed

New York's top farm club at Columbus (AAA) of the International League into the playoffs with an 83-57 record. The Clippers, who included such players as 1985 A.L. Most Valuable Player Don Mattingly, Steve Balboni, Otis Nixon and Rick Reuschel on their roster, were beaten in the finals by Tidewater, the eventual Triple A champions.

In 1982, his first season as a professional manager, Oates directed the Nashville Sounds (AA) of the Southern League. Included on that club were Ray Fontenot and Brian Dayett, who Oates later managed in Columbus. Dayett was the MVP for Oates in both 1982 and 1983. The Sounds won the Southern League championship in 1982. Oates had taken a job in the Yankee farm system after retiring from baseball in 1981. He had spent the final two years of his career with the Yankees.

Oates was a respected defensive catcher throughout his M.L. career and broke in with the Baltimore Orioles organization in 1967. He had been drafted in the first round of the '67 free agent draft (secondary phase) and played three and a half seasons of minor league ball before making his M.L. debut with the Orioles in the final weeks of the 1970 season. Oates originally had been drafted by the Chicago White Sox in June of 1966.

In his first full season with the Orioles in 1972, Oates batted .261 in 85 games with 4 homers and 21 RBI. He was traded to Atlanta after that season, where he received the majority of his playing time in the big leagues. After Atlanta, Johnny moved on to Philadelphia for the final part of the 1975 season and spent all of 1976 with the Phillies. From 1977 through 1979 he played for Los Angeles prior to concluding his career with New York. Oates finished with a lifetime batting average of .250.

Oates appeared in one N.L. Championship Series, in 1976 with Philadelphia, and played in two World Series with the Dodgers in 1977 and 1978. He singled in his only official at-bat in the '78 Series.

Oates has been a winner throughout his playing and coaching career. He played on only one second division team—the 1973 Atlanta Braves. Ron Cey and Davey Lopes are both former teammates from his Dodger days. Oates credits his knowledge of catching to Cal Ripken, Sr., but also praises Jeff Torborg, Vern Hoscheit and Jim Hegan.

Johnny attended Virginia Tech ('68) and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education. He was elected to Virginia Tech's Sports Hall of Fame in October of 1983. In the off-season, Johnny enjoys spending time with his family, golfing and bowling. His family still owns a home in Colonial Heights, VA but resided in the Chicago area for the first time this past winter. Oates spent much of his off-season working as a sales representative for Ha-Lo Advertising Specialties in Lincolnwood.

JOHN VUKOVICH

John Christopher Vukovich was born in Sacramento, CA on July 31, 1947. He and his wife Bonnie have two children, Nicole and Vincent, and reside in Pine Hill, NJ during the off-season.

John Vukovich is in his fifth season as a major league coach and as a Cubs coach. John has been the Cubs first base coach for the past two seasons and also coached first, in 1982, his first year as a major league coach. He spent the 1983 campaign assisting managers Lee Elia and Charlie Fox in the dugout. Besides coaching first base, John works extensively with Cub infielders and hitters.

"Vuk" was a member of the 1980 championship club in Philadelphia and also played for Dallas Green in 1981. He was regarded as an excellent third baseman during his career, playing in parts of 10 seasons in the big leagues. John was drafted by the Phillies in 1966 and spent parts of the '70, '71, '76 and '79 seasons with Philadelphia. Vuk was also a member of the Milwaukee Brewers in 1973-74 and began the 1975 season with the Cincinnati Reds. He was the starting third baseman that season for the Reds.

All told, Vukovich played on two major league teams which won championships (Cincinnati in 1975 and Philadelphia in 1980) and four other clubs which won division titles. He was also a member of three league champions in the minor leagues—Spartanburg ('67), Eugene ('72) and Oklahoma City ('79). He had his best overall offensive year in 1979 for the Oklahoma City 89ers, batting .291 in 101 games. He also hit 22 homers for Eugene with 96 RBI in 1970.

Vukovich attended the American River College in Sacramento where he earned an Associates Arts degree in physical education. John played baseball, basketball and football at Amador County High School in Sutter Creek, CA. and he led his high school league in fielding four consecutive seasons. Vuk played American Legion ball in 1964 and 1965 and played amateur ball with shortstop Larry Bowa. John hit six homers in his M.L. career with his only N.L. homer coming off Jerry Koosman in 1976. His other five homers came with Milwaukee. Vukovich was part of a seven-player deal between Milwaukee and Philadelphia in 1972. John's off-season hobbies include hunting and fishing.

DON ZIMMER

Donald William Zimmer was born in Cincinnati, OH on January 17, 1931. He and his wife Jean have two children, Thomas and Donna, and reside in Treasure Island, FL during the off-season.

Zimmer is in his third season as the Cubs third base coach and will also be in his 35th year in uniform, 24 in the major leagues. Before coming to the Cubs prior to the 1984 season, Don coached third base for the 1983 New York Yankees.

Considered one of the top baseball field people in the business, Zimmer is a former Cub player (1960-1961). He played 12 seasons in the major leagues, mostly at third base. During his professional career, he played every position on the field.

Zimmer has had nine years of experience managing in the major leagues, starting in San Diego (1972-73). He also spent five seasons at the helm of the Boston Red Sox (1976-1980) and two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1981-82). He has a 620-600 lifetime record in the majors as a manager with two second-place and two third-place finishes, all in Boston. Prior to his five-year stint with the Red Sox, Don served Boston for two and a half years as its third base coach. He replaced Darrell Johnson on July 19, 1976.

Zimmer, who grew up in Cincinnati and played amateur and high school baseball with Jim Frey, began his pro career in the Dodgers system in 1949. Two serious head injuries threatened his career. The first injury came in 1953 while he was playing for St. Paul, when he was struck in the head by a pitch from Columbus' Jim Kirk. In 1956, while playing for Brooklyn, Don was struck in the face by a pitch from Reds hurler Hal Jeffcoat. On both occasions, Zimmer was batting .300 at the time of his injury.

After Don finally made it to the Dodgers in 1954, he stayed with them until coming to the Cubs on April 8, 1960. While with the Dodgers, Zimmer played second base in the final game of the 1955 World Series, won by Johnny Podres over the Yankees. It was Brooklyn's first and only World Championship. In his two seasons as a Cub, Zimmer batted .258 and .252. He hit 13 homers and drove in 40 runs for the Cubs in 1961 and represented them in one of the two 1961 All-Star games. Later that fall, Don was selected by the New York Mets in the Expansion Draft. After playing with the Mets, Zimmer also saw service with Cincinnati, the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Washington Senators. He returned to the minor leagues in 1966 and 1967 and retired as a player following the '67 season. Don was also a manager in 1967 in the Cincinnati farm system. He moved up to third base coach with the Montreal Expos in 1971. Don replaced Preston Gomez as San Diego Padres manager in April of 1972, after opening the season as the club's third base coach.

Zimmer, who played in two World Series (1955 and 1959), is an avid golfer and fisherman. He also holds the distinction of playing for Charlie Grimm and Lou Boudreau in 1960 and for the College of Coaches in 1961.

BILLY WILLIAMS — HITTING INSTRUCTOR

Billy Williams rejoins the Chicago Cubs after three seasons as the Oakland A's hitting instructor. Williams, one of the all-time offensive leaders in the 110-year history of the Cubs, played with the Cubs from 1959 through 1974. He was a member of the Cubs coaching staff from 1978 through 1982. He returns as the organization's hitting instructor.

Billy, 47, was named the National League Rookie of the Year in 1961 when he hit 25 homers and drove in 86 runs while batting .278. Perhaps his best season came in 1972 when he led the league in hitting (.333) and slugging percentage (.606). He also contributed 37 homers and 122 RBI. A model of consistency, Williams hit 20 or more homers 13 straight seasons and drove in 90 or more runs in 10 of 11 seasons from 1962 through 1972. He appeared in six All-Star Games and held the National League record for consecutive games played (1,117). The streak started on September 22, 1962 and extended to September 3, 1970.

Williams was traded by the Cubs to Oakland on October 23, 1974 for pitchers Bob Locker and Darold Knowles and second baseman Manny Trillo, a current Cub. He accumulated a .290 career batting average with 2,711 hits, 434 doubles, 88 triples, 426 homers and 1,476 RBI in 18 seasons.

Billy and his wife Shirley have four daughters, Valarie, Nina, Julia and Sandra. They reside in suburban Glen Ellyn.

JIM PIERSALL — OUTFIELDER INSTRUCTOR

Jim Piersall begins his first season with the Cubs serving the organization in the role of outfielder instructor. Piersall will work with the Cub outfielders during the 1986 spring training camp. He will spend time both at the major and minor league levels.

Piersall, 56, played 17 years in the major leagues from 1950 through 1967. A lifetime .272 hitter, Piersall batted .293 in 1956 while with the Boston Red Sox. He had a league-leading 40 doubles and had a career-high 87 RBI. His best overall season was in 1961 when he hit a career-high .322 with the Cleveland Indians in 121 games. His lifetime fielding percentage as an outfielder is .997.

Following his playing career, Jim was a broadcaster for the Chicago White Sox from 1977-1981 and also hosted a radio talk show. He has written two books, Fear Strikes Out and The Truth Hurts.

Jim and his wife Jan reside in Chicago.

WARREN BRUSSTAR'S GAME HIGHS

Longest relief appearance: 4 innings, 6/3/84 @ Philadelphia
Most strikeouts: 4, most recently, 7/22/84 vs. San Francisco

RON CEY (11) — IF

CEY, RONALD CHARLES—Born 2-15-48, Tacoma, WA turned 38, February 15. Bats-R; Throws-R; Ht. 5-9; Wt. 185. How obtained: Became a Cub on January 20, 1983 when he was acquired from the Los Angeles Dodgers in exchange for pitcher Vance Lovelace and outfielder Dan Cataline. Major League service: 13 years, 43 days.

1985 SEASON: Ron came into the 1986 season needing just one homer to become the 5th third baseman in baseball history to have 300. . .in 1985 he started slowly with 8 hits in 56 April at-bats (.143). . .was hot in May with 7 homers and 14 RBI and a .284 average. . .hit 3 homers in 2 games vs. Houston on May 25-26 including a pair the second day. . .homered again on May 28 vs. Cincinnati. . .hit homers on back-to-back days vs. Atlanta connecting on both June 4-5. . .homered on June 10 before heading into a long power drought. . .went 38 games before homering again (July 27 vs. LA). . .had only 2 RBI in that stretch. . .rebounded with a torrid August. . .batted .340 that month with 4 homers and 16 RBI. . .had 5 homers and 18 RBI in September-October. . .homered in successive games on August 14-15 (Montreal and Philadelphia). . .the August 14th homer was his 7th career grand slam. . .it came off Bryn Smith. . .homered on September 6-7 vs. Cincinnati. . .hit a pair of homers on September 28 vs. the Phillies—it was the 16th time he had hit 2 homers in a game. . .batted .317 with runners on third base and hit .429 with runners on third with 2 out. . .batted .284 vs. the Western Division teams. . .homered vs. every Western division club except the Giants. . .ironically, Ron has more career homers (38) vs. San Francisco than any other club. . .hit the first 3 homers vs. his former teammates including his first Dodger Stadium homer as a Cub (May 15). . .hit 15 of his 22 homers at Wrigley Field and nearly tripled his RBI production at home compared to the road (45-18) in spite of having 24 fewer at-bats at home. . .surpassed the 20-homer mark for the 10th straight full season (hit 13 in shortened 1981 season).

MAJOR LEAGUES: In 1984 Ron hit 25 homers and drove in 97 runs, marking the ninth time in the last 10 seasons he had at least 23 homers and 77 RBI. . .hit 6th career grand slam on May 8 vs. Giants. . .led the club in homers and RBI. . .injured his right wrist on June 23 and played with pain most of the remainder of the season. . .although the X-rays were negative, Ron hit just 3 homers in his next 29 games. . .went on a homer binge from July 31 to August 7, hitting 4 homers in 8 games. .

.had an 8-game hitting streak from August 14-22 (.414, 12-for-29) with a double, 3 homers, 11 RBI. . .the 3 homers came in 3 straight days (Aug. 18-19-20). . .batted .303 in August with 9 homers and 28 RBI. . .came within 4 games of tying the N.L. record for consecutive errorless games by a third baseman. . .Cey made an error on Opening Day and then went 60 games without an error. . .streak was broken June 28 at Dodger Stadium. . .although his .240 average was the lowest of his 12 big league seasons, he did hit .291 covering the last 41 games. . .surpassed the 1,000 RBI mark. . .in the NLCS he hit his 4th homer in Game 1. . .had 3 RBI giving him 14 in the playoffs. . .in 1983 he led the Cubs with 90 RBI and tied Jody Davis for the team lead with 24 homers. . .tied Keith Moreland with 11 game-winning hits. . .was selected as N.L. Player of the Week for May 16-22 when he went 10-for-18 with 3 homers and 8 RBI. . .on September 22 he hit the first inside-the-park homer of his career (vs. Lee Tunnell at Wrigley Field). . .started his Cub career slowly with a .198 average, 0 homers, 8 RBI and 8 errors in first 28 games. . .batted .284 with 24 homers, 82 RBI and 9 errors in next 135 games. . .equalled his career-high by playing 159 games. . .in 1982 Ron closed out his Dodger career as the Los Angeles Dodgers all-time home run leader with 228. . .ranks 4th all-time behind Roy Campanella, Gil Hodges and Duke Snider. . .L.A. Dodger record holder with 5 career grand slams. . .played a club record 1,481 games at third for the Dodgers. . .had 45 RBI at the 1982 All-Star Break. . .hit an average of 5 homers a month from May through September. .had 6 homers, 17 RBI vs. the Giants. . .in 1981 he led the Dodgers in homers (13) and game-winning hits (9) in the shortened season. . .was selected as the tri-MVP of the 1981 World Series along with Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager after hitting .350 with six RBI, including the game-winner in the decisive sixth game. . .came back to collect two hits in Game 6 after being struck on the helmet by a Goose Gossage pitch in the eighth inning of Game 5. . .Cey rejoined the Dodgers for the N.L. Championship Series with Montreal after having his left forearm broken when he was struck by a pitch thrown by San Francisco's Tom Griffin on September 9. . .was among the N.L.'s top 10 in slugging percentage (.474) and on-base percentage (.372) when he left the lineup in September. . .finished with his best batting average in nine seasons (.288). . .in 1980 he was outstanding down the stretch as the Dodgers and Houston Astros battled for the N.L. Western Division title. . .he hit 14 homers and had 36 RBI from August through the end of the season. . .in April of 1980 he reached base in 11 straight at bats (seven hits, four walks) with six RBI on April 16-17 against the Padres and Astros.

In 1979 he tied a N.L. record for fewest errors in a season by a third baseman with nine. . .also set the Dodger record for fielding percentage by a third baseman (.977), a mark previously held by Billy Cox (.970) since 1952. . .was named to the All-Star team for the 6th straight season. . .led club with 28 homers, one of 5 Dodgers to have more than 20, a club record. . .in 1978 he led all National League third basemen in homers (23) and RBI (84). . .in 1977 he set a major league record for most RBI in a month (29 in April). . .had a career-high 110 RBI. . .had the longest hitting streak of his career in April (17 games). . .had nine consecutive hits in a series at San Francisco (July 2-3-4), one short of the club record. . .had the best start of his career in April of 1977 when he hit .425. . .had a career-high 30 homers, a Dodger record for third basemen. . .was one of 4 Dodgers to hit 30 or more homers that season, a major league record. . .led the club in game-winning hits for the 4th straight season. . .in 1976 he led the club with 23 homers. . .in 1975 he hit 25 homers to lead the club. . .in 1974 he set the L.A. Dodger record for most RBI (8) in a game (vs. San Diego on July 31). . .named to the All-Star team for the first time. . .in 1973 he played his first full season with the Dodgers joining Davey Lopes, Steve Garvey and Bill Russell in the infield - a unit that played together a record 9 seasons. . .in 1972 Ron played 11 games for the Dodgers after making his M.L. debut the season before. . .hit 1st major league homer on September 26, 1972 off San Diego pitcher Mike Caldwell.

IN THE MINORS: Helped lead the Albuquerque Dukes, managed by Tom Lasorda, to a Pacific Coast League championship in 1972—his last season in the minors. . .batted .329 that season with 23 homers and 103 RBI. . .led the PCL with 123 RBI at Spokane in 1971. . .also had 32 homers and batted .328 that season. . .in his first season of pro ball in 1968 he knocked in 62 runs at Tri-Cities to lead the Northwest League.

PERSONAL/MISC: Ron is married to the former Fran Fishbein. Children: Daniel, Amanda. . .they reside in Woodland Hills, CA during the off-season. . .nicknamed "The Penguin". . .cut a record in 1976. . .served as Southern California Christmas Seals Chairman in 1976. . .graduated from Mt. Tacoma High School (Tacoma, WA). . .lettered in baseball, basketball and football in high school. . .was 15th round choice by the New York Mets out of high school but chose to attend Washington State University. . .also attended Western Washington State College.

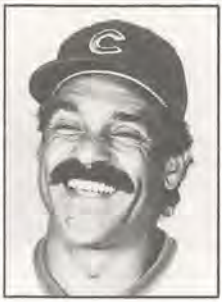
STEVE LAKE'S GAME HIGHS

Most hits: 4, 4/26/83 vs. San Diego
Most RBI: 3, most recently, 9/26/84 @ Pittsburgh
Last home run: 5/25/85 vs. Houston
Longest hitting streak: 4 games, 1985

DID YOU KNOW?

That when Chuck Rainey's no-hitter on August 23, 1983 was ended by Cincinnati's Eddie Milner with two out in the 9th inning, it was the 22nd time in baseball history a no-hitter has been broken with two outs. Additionally, three perfect games have been busted with two outs in the ninth. Rainey was the first Cub to lose a 2-out, 9th inning no-hitter. The Cubs also broke one up themselves—Joe Wallis ruined Tom Seaver's bid in 1975.

DAVEY LOPES (15) OF/IF



LOPES, DAVID EARL—Born 5-3-46, East Providence, RI, turns 40, May 3. Bats-R; Throws-R; Ht. 5-9; Wt. 170. How obtained: Became a Cub on August 31, 1984 when he was acquired from the Oakland A's for a player to be named later (Damon Farmar). Lopes also satisfied the player to be named later in the July 15, 1984 transaction which sent Chuck Rainey to Oakland. Major League service: 13 years, 15 days.

1985 SEASON: Proved to be one of the more steady, versatile members of the club in his first full season as a Cub. . .started at all three outfield positions and also 4 games at third base. . .finished with a .284 batting average, 21 points higher than his career average and his best final figure in the big leagues. . .Davey's previous best was in 1977 with the Los Angeles Dodgers (.283). . .had 44 RBI with 6 game-winners, tying him with Leon Durham for the fourth spot on the club in that department. . .was hitting as high as .301 on August 1 but a foot injury and hamstring problems limited his playing time in the final 5 weeks as he made only 8 starts after August 16. . .prior to then, Lopes was making a bid to become the all-time Cubs basestealer for one season. . .Davey had 41 SB by August 2 and finished with 47, second to Ryne Sandberg. . .the club record is 67, held by Frank Chance. . .Lopes became the first major leaguer to steal more than 27 bases in a season during which he turned 39 (May 3). . .the previous high was held by William (Dummy) Hoy of the White Sox, who stole 27 at age 39 in 1901. . .other SB leaders at that age included Honus Wagner of Pittsburgh (21 in 1913), Lou Brock of St. Louis (17 in 1978) and Ty Cobb of Detroit (13 in 1926). . .Wagner holds the record for most SB by a 40-year-old player (23). . .Lopes enters the 1986 season with 530 stolen bases in his career, ranking 11th on the all-time modern list. . .Cesar Cedeno (549) is in 10th. . .the only other active player ahead of them is Rickey Henderson. . .Lopes is the second Cub player to crack the Top 25 list of SB leaders. . .Frank Chance is in 24th place with 405. . .Lopes had a consecutive SB streak of 34 stopped on May 19 in Atlanta by Bruce Benedict, a stretch that dated back to mid-1982. . .Davey is considered to be one of the smartest basestealers in history. . .he has swiped 50 bases in 54 attempts as a Cub (.926) and has been thrown out just 8 times in 88 attempts (.909) in the past three seasons. . .has a lifetime basestealing percentage of .835 (530-for-635). . .Davey achieved two career milestones in 1985. . .stole his 500th base in the 6th inning against Atlanta (Benedict) at Wrigley Field on June 5. . .hit the 100th home run of his N.L. career on April 26 at Philadelphia (Jerry Koosman). . .Davey hit 11 homers, 5 of which came in the final 3 innings (2 in both the 8th and 9th innings). . .was 10-for-11 in steals of third base. . .began the season as a platoon player but started in left and center when injuries hit Gary Matthews and Bobby Dernier. . .started 53 games from May 19 through September 1. . .longest hitting streak was 9 games (13-for-28, .464) from May 20-June 1. . .hit over .300 in three different months. . .batted .320 in April, .333 in May and .360 in September-October. . .was hitting .302 at the All-Star break with 8 homers and 30 RBI along with 33 stolen bases. . .hit .303 against right-handers compared to .247 against lefties. . .hit .349 with two out. . .probably his best month was May, when he hit .333 with 3 homers, 15 RBI and 10 stolen bases. . .had 14 stolen bases in June. . .also had a good July, batting .298 with 3 homers, 11 RBI and 9 SB. . .hit .316 on artificial surfaces. . .batted .304 against the West with 23 SB, 7 HR and 28 RBI. . .batted .264 against the Eastern clubs with 24 SB. . .crushed Pittsburgh pitching to the tune of .556 (10-for-18). . .also was successful against Cincinnati (.471) and San Diego (.409). . .most stolen bases came against St. Louis (7). . .his .383 on-base percentage was tops among Cub regulars. . .enters the season needing 9 hits to reach 1,600 for his career.

MAJOR LEAGUES: In 1984 Lopes came to the Cubs on the eve of the deadline for playoff eligibility from Oakland, where he had played all three outfield positions along with DH. . .also had played at third and second for the A's. . .made his Cubs debut as a defensive replacement in leftfield on September 3 in Philadelphia. . .got a double off Steve Carlton on September 4 in his first Cub at-bat and went 2-for-5. . .started 4 games for the Cubs and finished with a .235 average (4-for-17). . .hit .257 with Oakland, going 15-for-15 in stolen bases. . .a fly ball struck his face and shattered the contact lens in his left eye in Milwaukee on July 6. . .was hospitalized for several days and did not return to the lineup until August 7. . .in 1983 Lopes posted his best season since 1979. . .hit .277 for Oakland along with 17 homers and 67 RBI. . .RBI total was 6 shy of his M.L. high (73 with Los Angeles in 1979). . .drove in 7 runs against Toronto on June 15, a career high, including a grand slam (Dave Geisel). . .hit .312 with 8 homers and 32 RBI for the months of June and July. . .hit .303 in April. . .in 1982 Lopes batted .242 in his first American League season. . .had 28 steals with the A's that season. . .was acquired by Oakland from Los Angeles on February 8, 1982 for infielder Lance Hudson. . .in 1981 Lopes made his fourth consecutive All-Star appearance with the Dodgers. . .had 10 stolen bases in post-season play, including 4 against the Yankees in the World Series, his fourth trip to the Fall Classic. . .in 1980 Lopes collected the top number of fan votes for the All-Star game. . .had his fourth consecutive year in double figures with 10 homers. . .in 1979 he was named to The Sporting News, AP and UPI All-Star teams when he batted .265 with a career high 28 homers and 73 RBI. . .the 28 HR tied for the Dodger club lead. . .only two other N.L. second basemen had hit more homers in a season (Davey Johnson, 43, and Rogers Hornsby, 42). . .in 1978 Davey earned his first trip to the All-Star game and was also named to The Sporting News, AP and UPI All-Star teams at second base after hitting .278 with 17 HR and 58 RBI. . .also stole 45 bases and won his first Gold Glove. . .stole 4 bases in a game twice that season. . .hit .389 in the NLCS against Philadelphia and batted .308 against New York in the World Series with 3 HR and 7 RBI. . .'78 was his first season as Dodgers team captain, only the fifth man to hold that distinction in Dodger history (Reese, Snider, Wills and Willie Davis). . .in 1977 he hit a career high .283 and led Los Angeles into the World Series against the Yanks. . .in 1976 Davey missed a month of the season with an injury but still led the N.L. in stolen bases (63) for the second straight season. . .in 1975 Lopes stole a career high 77 bases (.865 percentage). . .that included 38 bases in a row, a M.L. record he still holds. . .he set that mark from June 10 through August 24 en route to leading the league. . .in 1974 Lopes had his best day in the majors, hitting 3 homers with 5 hits and 4 RBI against the Cubs at Wrigley Field in August. . .finished with a .266 average in his second full season with L.A., stealing 59 bases and hitting 10 homers. . .in 1973 Lopes stuck with the Dodgers for good and formed an infield with Ron Cey, Bill Russell and Steve Garvey. . .that infield combo would play together for a M.L. record 9 seasons. . .batted .275 as a rookie that season with 6 homers and 37 RBI plus 36 SB. . .in 1972 Davey made his major league debut in September, playing in 11 games and hitting .214.

IN THE MINORS: Lopes led the Pacific Coast League (AAA) in steals with 48 when he batted .317 for Albuquerque in 1972. . .had 11 homers and 53 RBI that season. . .had an outstanding season for Spokane (AAA) in 1971 under manager Tommy Lasorda when he batted .306. . .was switched that season by Lasorda from the outfield to second base. . .stole 32 bases at Daytona Beach (A) of the Florida State League in 1969 when he batted .280. . .also played for Daytona Beach in 1968 after being the Dodgers second round pick in the January free agent draft.

THE 200 20-20-20-20 CLUB

No player in baseball history has ever had a season when he had 200 or more hits plus 20 or more doubles, triples, homers and stolen bases. Ryne Sandberg came the closest to achieving that plateau falling short by one homer and one triple. Here are a few of the players who have come the closest in baseball history:

RICK SUTCLIFFE (40) RHP

SUTCLIFFE, RICHARD LEE—Born 6-21-56, Independence, MO, turns 30 on June 21. Bats-L; Throws-R; Ht. 6-7; Wt. 215. How Obtained: Became a Cub on June 13, 1984 when his contract, along with the contracts of catcher Ron Hassey and pitcher George Frazier, was purchased from the Cleveland Indians. In return, the contracts of outfielders Mel Hall and Joe Carter were awarded to Cleveland on June 19. On June 13, Cleveland also received pitchers Don Schulze and Darryl Banks, both of whom were optioned to Cleveland farm teams. On April 1, 1985, the Cubs also received outfielder Nehames (Pookie) Bernstine from the Indians to satisfy a player-to-be-named requirement to complete the transaction. Major League service: 7 years, 42 days.

1985 SEASON: Last year proved to be one of the most frustrating in Rick's career. . .after winning the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1984, Rick struggled with a series of injuries that put him on the disabled list three times and limited him to just 20 starts and an 8-8 record. . .prior to his first injury on May 19, Rick had compiled a 5-3 record and a 2.11 ERA in 8 starts covering 64 innings. . .had his 16-game regular-season winning streak (a Cub record) stopped on April 19 in Montreal (5-3 loss). . .Rick left the game holding a 3-2 lead with 2 runners on and 1 out in the Expos sixth inning. . .he had won his first 2 starts of the season. . .had 4 complete games and 2 shutouts in his first 8 starts. . .he was 3-2 with a 1.66 ERA in April. . .through his first 8 starts he allowed as many hits as innings pitched only twice. . .in 2 starts prior to May 19, he threw back-to-back complete games in San Francisco (1-0) and Los Angeles (8-3). . .on May 19 in Atlanta he suffered a torn left hamstring while avoiding a potential double play at first base. . .he was placed on the DL the following day. . .part of his rehabilitation program involved swimming pool workouts. . .returned to the lineup sooner than expected. . .made his return at Wrigley Field on June 7 and went the distance in beating Pittsburgh 1-0 on 5 hits (9 Ks, 3 BB). . .in his first 5 starts after his return he pitched sensationally. . .was 2-2 with a 1.62 ERA. . .he allowed only 28 hits in 39 innings with 7 earned runs. . .in his 2nd and 3rd starts after the injury Rick pitched well but was beaten by 2-0 scores in games against the Mets and the Expos. . .had a 2-1 no-decision against St. Louis and beat the Mets 4-2 with another complete game before struggling twice. . .his last 2 starts before his 2nd trip to the DL both lasted 5 innings. . .was beaten by the Phillies 11-2, allowing 7 earned runs in 5 innings. . .he permitted 5 earned runs in his next start against the Giants in 5 innings of work. . .was placed on the DL on July 8 for a strained left adductor muscle — an injury directly related to the left hamstring injury. . .he was activated on July 23 and pitched that evening in San Diego. . .beat the Padres 8-1 and worked 7 innings — it was his last win of the season. . .on July 28 in Los Angeles he worked only .2 of an inning allowing 3 hits, a walk and a wild pitch while facing just 6 batters. . .went on the DL for the final time of '85 on July 29 with a right shoulder injury. . .the Cubs decided not to start Sutcliffe again until he was completely healthy. . .he made 1 start in late September and another start in October as part of his rehabilitation program. . .he was limited to 50 pitches in the first outing and 87 in the second. . .worked 2.2 innings on September 27 vs. Philadelphia and 4.2 in a 9-4 loss to Pittsburgh on October 2. . .the Cubs averaged nearly 3 runs less a game when Rick was pitching in comparison to 1984. . .in his first 16 starts the Cubs were held scoreless 3 times, scored 1 run 3 times and 2 runs 3 times. . .overall, the opposition batted .240 off Rick. . .Eastern Division teams batted .235 and Western Division clubs hit .252. . .the Mets (1-1, 2.25) and the Cardinals (0-0, 1.13) combined to bat .200 off Rick. . .was 3-1 with a 1.48 ERA against Pittsburgh, giving him a 5-1 record vs. the Bucs as a Cub. . .against the Giants (1-0, 2.57) he fanned 30 percent of the batters he faced (19 K in 63 AB). . .right-handed hitters batted .218 against Rick and lefties .265. . .Sut was extremely tough in clutch situations. . .with runners in scoring position the opposition batted .200 (23-for-115). . .despite missing 15 starts, he still tied for the club lead in complete games (6) and was third on the staff in strikeouts (102) and wins (8).

MAJOR LEAGUES: In 1984 Rick became only the third pitcher in Cub history to win the Cy Young Award when he compiled a 16-1 record with a 2.69 ERA in 20 games after being acquired from Cleveland. . .led the staff in victories and strikeouts (155), complete games (7), ERA and shutouts (3). . .won 14 straight regular season games to end the season. . .became the only pitcher in the history of the Cy Young Award to win it after pitching in both leagues during the award-winning season. . .was 4-5 with Cleveland, giving him a 20-6 overall record becoming only the fourth pitcher in baseball history to win 20 games after pitching in both leagues. . .he was 9-0 against the East and 7-1 against the West. . .only his former teammates — the Dodgers — were able to beat Rick during the regular season (7-1, June 29 in LA). . .Rick became only the fourth pitcher to win the Cy Young Award unanimously. . .the others were Sandy Koufax (1963, 1965, 1966), Bob Gibson (1968) and Steve Carlton (1972, 1977). . .other post-season honors included The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year and ESPN's Pitcher of the Year awards. . .he was selected to the Associated Press and United Press International All-Star teams. . .received the Cy Young Award at the annual Diamond Dinner in Chicago. . .at the same function, Rick received the highest honor awarded by the Chicago Chapter of the BBWAA — the Warren Brown Headline Award. . .among his key victories in the Cubs division-winning 1984 season were: a 6-0 victory in New York on September 8 and a 7-1 win September 14 vs. the second-place Mets. . .on September 24 he beat the Pirates 4-1 in Pittsburgh to clinch the N.L. East title for the Cubs. . .he allowed only 2 hits in that contest. . .was N.L. Pitcher of the Month in August with a 6-0 record and a 3.52 ERA. . .was the Cubs stopper. . .7 of his 16 wins followed losses. . .twice he stopped 4-game losing streaks. . .from September 3 to September 19 he worked 30.1 innings, allowing 24 hits and 8 earned runs while fanning 40 and walking just 2. . .had a 1-1 record in post-season play vs. San Diego. . .defeated the Padres 13-0 in the NLCS opener at Wrigley Field. . .also homered off Eric Show in that game. . .lost Game 5 in San Diego 6-3. . .finished with a 3.38 ERA in 13.1 post-season innings. . .in 1983 won 17 games for the Indians even though his ERA rose to 4.29 in 36 games. . .that matched his M.L. high for wins, equalling the 17 victories he had in his rookie season with Los Angeles in 1979. . .won 5 of his first 6 decisions in 1983 and 10 of 13. . .had a 10-3 mark and 3.92 ERA for the first half of the season. . .that earned him his first trip to the All-Star game. . .had 4 complete games and 2 shutouts during the first half. . .had a 2-hit victory on May 11 to beat Kansas City (2-0). . .went 8-8 in the second half with 6 complete games. . .fanned a career high 10 batters on July 14 in a 4-3 win over K.C. . .in 1982 won the American League's ERA title in his first season in the league with Cleveland. . .had a 14-8 record to go along with a 2.96 ERA. . .he was the only A.L. starter with an ERA under 3.00. . .was traded to Cleveland following the 1981 season on December 9. . .came to the Tribe along with Jack Perconte in exchange for Jorge Orta and minor leaguers Larry White and Jack Fimple. . .in 1981 he was 2-2 with the Dodgers with a 4.02 ERA. . .won his first 2 games that season in April, then lost 2 games. . .was sent to the bullpen and closed out '81 with 8 relief appearances. . .did not allow an earned run in 6 of those 8 games. . .in 1980 he had a 3-9 mark with the Dodgers. . .got off to an 0-2 start his sophomore season in the majors with an 8.33 ERA and was sent to the bullpen by Tommy Lasorda in mid-May. . .picked up 3 saves and a victory in his first 7 relief appearances. . .his best outing of the year was as a sub-starter against Houston on June 24. . .pitched a 3-hit shutout and also had 2 RBI in the 3-0 win. . .in 1979 he was a longshot to make the Dodgers. . .began the season as a reliever. . .after 9 appearances out of the pen, Sutcliffe made his first appearance against Philadelphia on May 3 in Dodger Stadium where he subbed for Burt Hooton. . .went the distance in beating the Phils, 5-2. . .stayed in the rotation the rest of the way and led the staff in wins (17) and innings pitched (242). . .was chosen as N.L. Rookie of the Year by the BBWAA and by The Sporting News and Baseball Bulletin. . .Sutcliffe set Dodger records for the most wins by a rookie. . .was 12-3 at Dodger Stadium. . .hit his first major league homer off Tom Seaver of the Reds on May 25. . .also made two brief September appearances with Los Angeles in 1976 and 1978. . .made 2 relief appearances in '78 and made one start in 1976—debut was September 29 against Houston that season. . .held the Astros to 2 hits in 5 innings but did not get a decision.

STEVE TROUT (34) LHP

TROUT, STEVE RUSSELL—Born 7-30-57, Detroit, MI, turns 29, July 30. Bats-L; Throws-L; Ht. 6-4; Wt. 190. How obtained: Became a Cub on January 26, 1983 when he was acquired from the Chicago White Sox along with pitcher Warren Brusstar in exchange for pitchers Dick Tidrow and Randy Martz and infielders Pat Tabler and Scott Fletcher. Major League service: 7 years, 20 days.

1985 SEASON: Steve got off to an excellent start, going 6-1 in his first 9 outings through June 8 before ulnar nerve problems in his left arm began to take their toll. . .Trout, who had an 8-4 record at the All-Star break to go along with a 2.81 ERA, finally was placed on the 15-day disabled list on July 23. . .he did not return until August 24 and made only 9 starts in the second half of the season, finishing with a record of 9-7 along with a 3.39 ERA. . .the 9 wins were second to Dennis Eckersley on the staff and his 3.39 ERA was the lowest of his major league career. . .only had 44 strikeouts in 140.2 innings and for the first time in his career walked more (63) than he fanned. . .his walk total was a M.L. high and his strikeout total marked a M.L. low in his 8-year career. . .once again proved to be virtually unhittable when he was in command of his sinker. . .had an excellent April when he was 4-1 with a 1.51 ERA. . .beat Pittsburgh twice that month and went on to go 4-0 against the Pirates with a 0.60 ERA in 4 starts totaling 30.0 innings. . .had 3 complete games, including his first start of the season on April 11 against Pittsburgh. . .hurled a 3-hitter in a 4-1 victory. . .came back on April 15 to defeat Philadelphia (2-1) going 8 innings. . .permitted 6 hits. . .after a 4-0 setback in Montreal on April 20, Trout won his next 4 decisions from April 24 through June 8. . .beat the Pirates on the road on April 24 (5-3) although he allowed 7 hits in 5 innings. . .came back to down San Francisco at Wrigley Field on April 30 (3-1) in a 6.2 inning, 9-hit performance. . .after a no-decision against San Diego on May 5, Steve went 7.1 innings against the Padres on the West Coast in a 6-2 win (7 hits, 1 ER) to improve his record to 5-1. . .began to experience some arm problems in a no-decision in Atlanta on May 17 (5.1 innings, 5 hits, 3 ER) and didn't pitch again until he started at home on June 8 against Pittsburgh. . .went 7 innings and allowed 8 hits and 0 runs in a 7-3 win to run his record to 6-1. . .lost 3 of his next 4 games as both he and the Cubs struggled throughout much of June. . .despite a 2-2 record that month, Trout posted a 2.73 ERA in 4 outings. . .lost to Montreal on the road again on June 13. . .Steve permitted 4 runs and 5 hits in 4.1 innings in a 9-7 defeat. . .was touched for 5 runs (4 ER) and 7 hits in 6 innings of work in New York and was the loser in a 5-1 setback. . .on June 28 in Pittsburgh, Trout improved his record to 7-3 with a complete game win (5-0). . .allowed 7 hits in his only shutout of the season—and third as a Cub. . .after dropping a July 4 game to San Francisco (6-4), Steve moved his record to 8-4 on July 9 with a 7-3 win over the Padres at Wrigley Field. . .made only 2 more starts in July (14 and 22) against Los Angeles and San Diego before going on the DL. . .his arm was placed in a soft cast during his DL stay and he was watched carefully when he returned to the rotation against Cincinnati on August 24. . .went 4 innings and allowed 3 hits in a 4-0 win over the Reds his first time back, then lasted 5 innings in a 9-6 defeat to Atlanta. . .was not involved in that decision as he surrendered 3 hits and 1 run. . .pitched 6 innings in a start against Houston on September 3, a no-decision effort (7 hits, 5 runs). . .was supposed to start against Cincinnati at Wrigley Field on September 8 but was scratched on game day after hurting himself the night before in a bicycle accident at home. . .that resulted in a bizarre turn of events as Reggie Patterson took his place and Pete Rose inserted himself into the lineup, getting 2 hits that afternoon to tie Ty Cobb's all-time hit record. . .Steve went 1-3 in his final 5 starts of the season, lasting 1.2 innings in a September 13 loss to St. Louis (5 hits, 4 runs) and 4.2 frames in a road setback on September 18 to New York (7 hits, 3 runs). . .pitched his third complete game of the season on September 29 against Philadelphia. . .allowed 7 hits and 2 runs in a 6-2 win. . .was the loser in St. Louis on October 5, going 5.1 innings (6 hits, 3 runs) in a 7-1 defeat. . .was more effective at Wrigley Field with a 6-2 mark and 3.39 ERA. . .had a 4.63 ERA after the All-Star game. . .was 6-6 against Eastern Division teams with a 3.18 ERA. . .all 3 complete games came against the East. . .has a 20-14 lifetime mark against the East compared to a 12-14 record against the West. . .was 2-0 against the Padres, who batted .205 against him.

MAJOR LEAGUES: In 1984 Trout had his finest season in the majors, setting a career high in victories with 13. . .Steve was the only lefty on the team for much of that season and got off to a fast start by winning 3 of his first 4 decisions. . .won 6 straight decisions from May 16 to July 3 to improve his record to 9-3. . .hurled a 3-0 win on a 7-hitter in an important July 29 game over the Mets, the first game of a double-header in New York that helped the Cubs climb to within 1½ games of first place. . .it was Steve's first shutout since 1980. . .also later blanked Atlanta on August 26 (5-0) at Wrigley Field. . .his 13 wins were second to Rick Sutcliffe on the Cubs staff. . .he led the team in innings pitched (190) and his 3.41 ERA was the third best on the staff among starters. . .led the club in starts (31). . .went 2-0 against St. Louis with a 2.60 ERA and was 2-1 against the Mets. . .went 8.1 innings in Game 2 of the playoffs against San Diego in a 4-2 victory, limiting the Padres to 5 hits in his victory. . .relieved Rick Sutcliffe in Game 5 and got both batters he faced to retire the side. . .in 1983 Trout won 10 games, the fourth best mark on the staff. . .after a 1-5 start he won 5 of his next 6 starts to stand at 6-6 on June 18. . .beat Montreal on April 12 for his first win with the Cubs. . .he was the first Cubs left-handed starter to win a game since Dave Geisel won on September 28, 1981. . .had one complete game, that coming against St. Louis (10-1) on June 18 on a 4-hitter. . .was 7-7 at the All-Star break before slumping to a 3-7 mark and 4.65 ERA to finish at 10-14. . .8 of his 10 wins came against the Eastern Division. . .came over to the Cubs in an off-season trade in January a month before spring training. . .in 1982 Steve went 6-9 with his best month coming in May when he was 3-2 with a 3.76 ERA. . .in 1981 he displayed brilliance at times, finishing with an 8-7 record. . .in the second half of the season he went 10 straight appearances (8 starts, 2 relief) without allowing more than 3 runs in an appearance covering a span of 61.2 innings. . .prior to the player's strike that season, Trout was among the American League ERA leaders with a 2.73 mark and a 5-3 record in 69.1 innings. . .in 1980 Trout was second on the White Sox staff in innings pitched (200) and third in wins (9), starts (30), complete games (7) and strikeouts (89). . .also claimed the staff one-season record for consecutive shutout innings with 27. . .that occurred between July 1-13. . .on July 13, Steve and Rudy May of the Yankees were locked in a double no-hitter for 7 innings (Steve lost, 3-1). . .in 1979 Steve had his best season for the ChiSox, going 11-8 with a 3.89 ERA following his recall from the Sox' Triple A club in Iowa on May 5. . .started 18 of 34 games that season with 6 CG and 2 SHO. . .2 of the CGs came in his final 3 starts. . .after making 1 start following his recall, Trout went to the bullpen for 15 relief appearances and resumed his role as a starter on July 1. . .reeled off 4 straight wins over a 17-day period. . .Steve was 9-5 over the final half of the '79 season. . .in 1978 Steve was 3-0, all of his victories coming in September after he was recalled from Iowa of the American Association.

IN THE MINORS: Pitched in the minor leagues for two-plus seasons before being recalled by the White Sox in 1978. . .his best season was at Knoxville (AA) of the Southern League when he was 8-3 with a 1.65 ERA in 1978. . .he won eight of his 12 starts that season. . .he also pitched well at Iowa in 1979 when he opened the season at the Triple-A level and registered a 3-1 record.

PERSONAL/MISC: Steve is married to the former Sandra Belder. Children: Taytum. . .they reside in Crete, IL during the off-season. . .although Steve was born in Detroit he grew up in south suburban South Holland, IL while his father, former major league pitcher Paul (Dizzy) Trout, worked in the White Sox front office. . .Paul pitched for the Detroit Tigers in the 1945 World Series against the Cubs. . .graduated from Thornwood High School in South Holland. . .his high school baseball teammates nicknamed him "Rainbow". . .selected by the White Sox' organization in the first round of the June, 1976 free agent draft. . .he was the eighth player selected overall.

SCORING RULE—PINCH HITTERS

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.)

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

DID YOU KNOW?

That former Cubs great Cap Anson is the oldest player to have hit a grand slam in the major leagues. Cap was 42 years and three months old when he hit a bases loaded HR on August 1, 1884. Cap also closed out his career by hitting two home runs in the first game of a doubleheader against St. Louis on October 3, 1897 when he was 45 years and five months old. Only Philadelphia A's pitcher Jack Quinn hit a major league homer at an older age. Quinn was one week shy of his 46th birthday when he connected on June 27, 1930.

SAVE RULE

Saves shall be awarded to relief pitchers under the following criteria:

Rule (10:20) tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualifies under the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck, (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsman he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

CUBS NO-HIT PITCHERS SINCE 1900

1904	Wicker, June 11, vs. Giants at New York (Pitched 9.1 hitless innings won 1-0 on one-hitter in 12).
1910	Cole, July 31, game No. 2 of doubleheader vs. Cardinals at St. Louis, Won 4-0 (7 innings).
1915	Lavender, Aug. 31, game No. 1 of doubleheader vs. Giants at New York, won 2-0.
1917	Vaughn, May 2, vs. Redlegs at Cubs Park (Pitched 9.1 hitless innings, lost 1-0 on 2 hits in 10th; Cincinnati's Toney pitched 10-inning no-hitter for a double no-hit game thru 9 innings).
1955	Jones, May 12, vs. Pirates at Wrigley Field, won 3-0.
1960	Cardwell, May 15, game No. 2 of doubleheader vs. Cardinals at Wrigley Field, won 4-0.
1969	Holtzman, Aug. 19 vs. Braves at Wrigley Field, won 3-0.
1971	Holtzman, June 3, vs. Reds at Cincinnati (N), won 1-0.
1972	Hooton, April 16, vs. Phillies at Wrigley Field, won 4-0.
1972	Pappas, Sept. 2, vs. Padres at Wrigley Field, won 8-0 (No Cub has pitched a perfect game; Pappas came closest by not allowing a batter to reach base until walking a man with 2 out in 9th inning).

NO-HITTER DAY

On August 19, 1965, Jim Maloney of the Cincinnati Reds threw a 10-inning no-hitter against the Cubs in Wrigley Field. The Reds won the game 1-0 on a home run by Leo Cardenas. Four years later, August 19, 1969, Cubs lefty Ken Holtzman threw the first of his two no-hitters when he beat the Atlanta Braves 3-0 at Wrigley Field. All three runs came from a first-inning Ron Santo home run.

CUBS HALL OF FAME

Last August 17, the Cubs inducted Fergie Jenkins and outfielder Bill Lange into the Chicago Cubs Hall of Fame, bringing the total number of members in the Hall to 40.

Jenkins played for the Cubs from 1966 through 1973 and again in 1982-83. He won 20 or more games in each of his first six full seasons with the Cubs and won the National League's Cy Young Award in 1971. He retired from baseball prior to the 1984 season with a career record of 284-226.

Lange was selected from the pre-1920 group. He played with the Cubs from 1893-1899 and compiled a lifetime batting average of .330. His finest season was in 1895 when he batted .389, scored 120 runs, had 98 RBI and stole 67 bases. Lange holds the all-time Cubs record for steals in a season, 84 in 1896.

The Chicago Cubs organization instituted the formation of the Chicago Cubs Hall of Fame in 1982. That first season the club selected 17 former Cubs who had been previously inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Also inducted in 1982 were three members of the Wrigley Family. In '82, the fans voted an additional 12 members into the Hall, bringing the first year's induction total to 32.

Each season Cub fans have selected a limited number of former greats to be inducted. Plaques containing a likeness of the inductee and detailing his career accomplishments are on display in the Cubs souvenir gift shop located along the lower concourse in rightfield.

Following is a list of the 40 members in the Chicago Cubs Hall of Fame.

A PAIR OF FIRSTS

On April 20, 1916, the Cubs played their first game in Wrigley Field and defeated the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings.

Thirty years later to the day, the first Cubs game was telecast over WBKD with Joe Wilson at the microphone. Unfortunately for the Cubs, Harry Breechen hurled a six-hitter and the St. Louis Cardinals blanked the Cubs 2-0.

1984 PLAYOFF RECORD

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2
AT WRIGLEY FIELD
CUBS 13, PADRES 0

The Cubs banged out 16 hits, including 5 homers, and scored 13 runs (all National League playoff records) in their rout over San Diego.

Rick Sutcliffe, who hit one of the homers, got the victory on a 2-hitter. Sutcliffe went 7 innings and struck out 8.

Bobby Dernier led off the Cubs first inning with a homer off Eric Show and Garry Matthews also connected in that inning for a 2-0 lead. Sutcliffe led off the third inning with a tremendous homer that cleared the rightfield bleachers and the Cubs made it 5-0 in that inning on Leon Durham's single and Keith Moreland's sacrifice fly.

Chicago added 6 runs in the fifth, an inning which featured Matthews' second homer of the game. Ron Cey's 2-run homer in the 6th supplied the coup de grace.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3
AT WRIGLEY FIELD
CUBS 4, PADRES 2

Bobby Dernier and Ryne Sandberg were the architects of this Cubs victory.

In the first inning, Dernier singled off Mark Thurmond and caught the Padres napping on Sandberg's hit-and-run ground out to third baseman Luis Salazar. Dernier raced all the way to third base on the play and scored on Gary Matthews' infield grounder to shortstop.

It was the fifth straight NLCS game in which the Sarge had driven in a run, another record.

In the third, Keith Moreland singled and scored on Ron Cey's double. The Penguin later scored on Jody Davis' sac fly for a 3-0 lead.

Winner Steve Trout went 8.1 innings and allowed just 5 hits. A sacrifice fly by Kevin McReynolds got in the Padres first run in the fourth and Steve Garvey's single in the sixth scored the other run off Trout, who got ninth inning relief help from Lee Smith.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4
AT SAN DIEGO
PADRES 7, CUBS 1

The Cubs took a 1-0 lead in the second inning on Ron Cey's RBI single following a double by Keith Moreland.

Garry Templeton, however, doubled in two runs off Dennis Eckersley in the fifth inning for a 2-1 lead. Alan Wiggins drove in another run that inning for a 3-1 advantage.

San Diego's 4-run sixth inning was highlighted by Graig Nettles' RBI single and a 3-run homer by McReynolds. Ed Whitson got the victory, allowing 5 hits, and got ninth inning relief help from Goose Gossage.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6
AT SAN DIEGO
PADRES 7, CUBS 5

Steve Garvey led the Padres victory with 4 hits and 5 RBI, including a dramatic 2-run homer into the rightfield stands off Lee Smith in the ninth inning that snapped a 5-5 tie.

Garvey's double in the third off Scott Sanderson capped a 2-run inning, the first time in the series that San Diego had scored first.

Back-to-back homers by Jody Davis and Leon Durham off Tim Lollar in the fourth inning put the Cubs into a 3-2 lead. Gary Matthews, on board with a walk, scored on Davis' homer. Durham's blast came after he had gone 1-for-14 in the series.

Garvey then came to the rescue in the fifth off Sanderson. The Padres first baseman stroked a single to score Tim Flannery, tying the game at 3-3.

In the seventh inning, off Cubs reliever Tim Stoddard, Garvey singled to left to score Bobby Brown with the go-ahead run after Tony Gwynn had been intentionally walked. Gwynn scored on a passed ball to make it 5-3.

Chicago rallied to tie the game in the eighth off Goose Gossage. Ryne Sandberg reached first on an infield hit and stole second as Matthews fanned. Keith Moreland singled in Sandberg and Davis doubled in Moreland for a 5-5 tie.

The Cubs loaded the bases in the ninth inning but reliever Craig Lefferts got out of the jam by getting Ron Cey to ground out to second with two out.

Gwynn singled with one out in the bottom of the ninth before Garvey crushed Smith's fastball for the game-winner. It was Garvey's first HR since August 15.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7
AT SAN DIEGO
PADRES 6, CUBS 3

The Cubs were 12 outs away from going into the World Series for the first time in 39 years when the tide turned in the sixth inning.

With Chicago leading 3-0 behind ace Rick Sutcliffe, thanks in part to Leon Durham's 2-run homer in the first and a solo shot by Jody Davis in the second, San Diego scored twice in the sixth inning. Terry Kennedy's liner to left got home Tony Gwynn from third, who had tagged up on the play.

Sutcliffe was back in trouble again in the seventh inning. He walked Carmelo Martinez to lead off the frame. Pinch-hitter Tim Flannery followed with a grounder that skipped underneath first baseman Durham's glove. Martinez, who had been sacrificed to second, scored on the error to tie the game at 3-3.

Alan Wiggins punched a check-swing single to short left and then Gwynn crushed a smash to the right of Ryne Sandberg. The ball took a wicked hop beyond the second baseman and went into right-center for a double, scoring Flannery and Wiggins. Steve Garvey's single concluded the scoring, making it 6-3.

Craig Lefferts got the victory with 2 innings of hitless relief work. Goose Gossage got the save with 2 innings of 2-hit pitching.

GENERAL RULES AND INFORMATION

Player Limits: Clubs must cut active roster to a maximum of 25 players on opening day...From Sept. 1 to opening day, clubs may carry up to 40 players.

Waivers: Players contracts may be available for purchase by other clubs in reverse order of the League standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after opening day. Otherwise, in reverse order of the standing at the close of the previous season.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Games: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be rescheduled at a later date.

Thank You, Bill Veeck 1914-1986

Bill Veeck was much more to Cubs baseball than a friendly fan in the Wrigley Field bleachers, pausing to soak in the sun and atmosphere. He was part of the Friendly Confines itself.

A little bit of the ballpark died on January 2, 1986 when Bill Veeck, 71, passed away. Almost from the beginning of his life, Bill's second home was Wrigley Field.

When he was five years old, Bill's father became president of the Cubs in 1919. When his dad died in 1933, Bill took a job with the Cubs for $15 a week as an office boy. In the summers, he worked as a peanut vendor at the park, rising at 5 a.m. each day. As he later said, "I learned you can get along with four hours of sleep."

On a summer night in 1938, Bill Veeck and two friends purchased ivy and Bittersweet and started planting the ivy and stringing the Bittersweet on the outfield brick walls.

"The brick walls had looked so barren and we wanted to beautify the park even more," recalled Veeck in 1983. "So we ran some copper wire up the wall and laced the Bittersweet with the ivy. Ultimately, the ivy took over."

And, every year when the ivy reappears, Cub fans should say "thank you" to Bill Veeck. He helped begin a process that has gone on and on. The ivy is part of the tradition at Wrigley Field, just as in his later years Bill Veeck was part of the tradition of the Cubs fan in the bleachers.

Ah, he loved the place.

"There is no nicer way to spend an afternoon," Veeck once said, "than to be out there in the sun, without your shirt on, to have a few beers and tell a few lies. Nothing in the country compares to that. It is pure, unadulterated love for baseball. It is the greatest buy in the country. You can't beat the price or the entertainment."

You couldn't beat having Bill Veeck on your side, either.

We've lost a good friend, Cub fans.

BROADCASTERS FOR 1986

LOU BOUDREAU

The 1986 season marks the 49th year Lou Boudreau has been involved in professional baseball at the major league level either as a player, manager or broadcaster. It is his 29th season with WGN.

Lou began what turned out to be a Hall of Fame playing career in 1938 with the Cleveland Indians. He played until the 1952 season. He appeared in 4 games that year for the Boston Red Sox before concentrating completely on his managing career that began in 1942 with the Indians. Lou, who was 24 when he took over the Indians managerial position while also playing shortstop, went on to manage 6 more seasons after his playing career ended, giving him 21 years in uniform.

He joined WGN in 1958 and worked with the late Jack Quinlan. Except for a brief managerial tour with the Cubs in 1960, Lou has been a fixture in the WGN booth.

As he did in 1985, Boudreau will serve as color commentator on WGN radio. Boudreau's popularity reached national proportions in 1948 when he took the Indians to the World Championship as a player-manager. Lou was voted the American League's Most Valuable Player that season, batting .355 with a career-high 18 homers, 106 RBI and 116 runs scored. Boudreau managed the Indians until the 1951 season. His string of nine consecutive years as Cleveland manager still stands as a club record. Lou retired as a player in 1952. His lifetime batting average is .295. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1970.

Born in Harvey, IL on July 17, 1917, Boudreau was also an outstanding basketball talent as a schoolboy, playing for Thornton Township in Harvey, IL where he gained all-state honors in that sport. He also played basketball at the University of Illinois. Later, in 1938-39, Lou played professional ball for Ceisars All-Americans in Hammond, IN. The City of Cleveland honored Boudreau by naming a street bordering Cleveland Stadium Boudreau Blvd.

HARRY CARAY

Harry Caray continues his colorful broadcasting career in 1986, marking the 43rd season Harry has added his insight to the game of baseball.

Year-by-year the popularity of Caray grows. Harry enters his 5th season of doing play-by-play for WGN.

Caray, who came over to the North Side in 1982 after an 11-year stint of broadcasting Chicago White Sox games, will again be teamed in the TV booth with color man Steve Stone. Along with his TV work, Caray will do the middle three innings of play-by-play with Lou Boudreau on WGN radio.

The St. Louis native points with pride to a record "of never having missed a day of work, not even an inning." It all began with the St. Louis Cardinals during the great Stan Musial era, a team he used to watch as a boy growing up in that city. After 25 years of play-by-play work for the Cards, Caray joined the Oakland A's in 1970 for one season before moving over to the White Sox. While in St. Louis he was named recipient of The Sporting News' Announcer of the Year Award on six occasions. Furthermore, Harry had been recognized numerous times for broadcasting honors in Missouri and Illinois.

Caray began his apprenticeship in radio sports before World War II in Joliet, IL. Later he moved to Kalamazoo, MI before joining KMOX radio in St. Louis. He has broadcast boxing, football, basketball and hockey in addition to his baseball assignments.

Born in St. Louis on March 1, 1920, Harry's 7th inning stretch rendition of "Take Me Out To The Ballgame" has been a trademark of his since the 1975 season.

VINCE LLOYD

The 1986 season will mark the 22nd year that Cubs baseball and Vince Lloyd have been together. The longtime play-by-play man for WGN will continue in his dual role as both an announcer and a general manager of the Tribune Company's radio syndication.

Vince and WGN sports editor Jack Rosenberg were named in 1983 as general managers in the new venture. Both played major roles in increasing the number of stations and areas served. The network now serves more than 60 radio outlets.

Along with his network duties, Vince will once again be providing color commentary in the WGN booth with Lou Boudreau and Dewayne Staats. Besides providing his insight and commentary on the radio, Vince will host the post-game highlights show on WGN radio.

Lloyd, born June 1, 1917, has been honored on numerous occasions as one of the country's top sports broadcasters. His background also includes years of calling Big Ten football games on WGN radio. One of the highlights of Vince's career came in 1961 when he became the first sports announcer to interview a United States President. Vince talked with President John F. Kennedy on WGN's "Lead-Off Man" show prior to the White Sox opener in Washington, D.C. against the Senators.

DEWAYNE STAATS

Dewayne Staats moves into his second season with the Cubs. As he did in 1985, Staats will handle play-by-play on the WGN radio broadcasts during the first three and final three innings while adding color commentary on television during the middle three innings with Steve Stone.

Staats, who turns 34 on August 8, has already put in nine seasons of major league baseball broadcast work. He handled play-by-play on television and radio for the Houston Astros from 1977 through 1984. While in Houston, he also did play-by-play for Big Eight Conference and Southwest Conference basketball.

From 1978 to 1983 Staats did radio play-by-play on the Texas A&M basketball network. Other past assignments included anchoring a nightly sports show on KPLR-TV in St. Louis (1975-76), doing radio play-by-play for the Oklahoma City 89ers baseball team (1973-74) and working on WOKZ radio in Alton, IL (1970-72), where he did a daily sportscast in addition to handling play-by-play of football, basketball and baseball contests in that area.

Staats' first major broadcasting assignment came as an intern for KMOX radio in St. Louis in the fall of 1972.

Staats is a graduate of Southern Illinois University and a product of Wood River Community High School in Wood River, IL.

One of his major achievements was co-hosting St. Louis' Emmy Award-winning "Weekend in St. Louis" show prior to joining the Astros. His top two broadcasting memories in Houston were calling Nolan Ryan's record fifth no-hitter against Los Angeles in 1981 and the Western Division title-clinching game for the Astros against the Dodgers in 1980. Besides broadcasting the Cubs, Dewayne did play-by-play for DePaul basketball games during the winter months.

STEVE STONE

Steve Stone begins his 4th season as a member of the Cubs broadcasting crew. Steve, who captured the 1980 American League Cy Young Award, did play-by-play on television for the first time during the 1985 season. This season he will once again provide the color analysis for Harry Caray during the first three and last three innings and will do television play-by-play during the middle three innings. He will also handle pre-game television assignments, as well as a pre-game radio show.

Stone retired from baseball in June of 1982 because of an injury to his right arm. He finished his 11-year major league career with the Baltimore Orioles, where in 1980 he compiled a 25-7 record and 3.23 ERA to win the Cy Young Award. Steve's career in the big leagues also included three seasons with the Cubs (1974-76) when he turned in records of 8-6, 12-8 and 3-6 before moving over to the White Sox for two seasons. He also played on the South Side in 1973. Stone began his M.L. career with the San Francisco Giants in parts of the 1971 and 1972 seasons. Stone signed with San Francisco following the 1969 January free agent draft. He finished with a 107-93 record in the majors.

Steve was 0-2 against the Cubs lifetime. He was 20-14 in his first two seasons as a Cub pitcher before a sore shoulder limited him to 17 games and 75 innings in 1976. Steve was a batterymate of Thurman Munson at Kent State and was all-Mid America Conference and team captain his junior year. He played two years at Kent State.

Stone was born in Cleveland on July 14, 1947. He opened a restaurant in Scottsdale, AZ in 1981 and another in Lake Tahoe. The '70 graduate of Kent State is a gourmet cook and wine connoiseur. He has written poetry and has been published in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Chicago newspapers. Steve's hobbies include racquetball, reading and chess.

MESA—SPRING TRAINING HOME

The Cubs returned to Mesa and HoHoKam Park for an eighth consecutive spring training in 1986 after attracting a record 102,950 in 16 home dates during 1985. That figure also established a major league spring training attendance record surpassing the previous high of 85,000 set by the New York Yankees in 1983. The average attendance of 6,434 per game set a HoHoKam Park record breaking the 1984 average of 4,991. The Cubs also set the HoHoKam Park single game attendance mark on March 12 against San Diego when 8,118 fans attended.

In 1985 the Cubs posted an 18-13-1 record in spring games, their best spring mark since going 20-10 in 1971. No Cubs team had ever won more than 14 games since the club began training at HoHoKam Park in 1979. The club was 11-5 at home and 7-8-1 in road games.

Collectively, the Cubs batted .282 and the pitching staff had a 3.85 ERA. Thad Bosley led the club in hitting with a .411 mark (23-for-56). Leon Durham batted .354 (28-for-79) and Brian Dayett had a .324 average (22-for-68). Other regulars batted as follows: Ron Cey (.231), Jody Davis (.302), Bobby Dernier (.308), Davey Lopes (.235), Gary Matthews (.302), Keith Moreland (.224) and Ryne Sandberg (.280). Durham paced the club in homers (3) and RBI (18). Dernier added 15 RBI and Davis 14.

Ray Fontenot led the pitching staff with a 2-0 record and 1.42 ERA in 10 relief appearances. Rick Sutcliffe had the best mark among starters with a 3-0 record and 2.61 ERA. He led the staff in innings pitched (38) and strikeouts (22). Lary Sorensen posted a 3-0 record and 2.70 ERA in nine games, including one start.

HoHoKam Park is run by a group of local businessmen, known as the HoHoKams, who have helped to make the Cubs "spring" home one of the best facilities in all of major league baseball. In 1983 Cubs President and General Manager Dallas Green announced a new agreement that will keep the Cubs at HoHoKam Park through the 1993 season.

Since coming to HoHoKam Park in 1979, the Cubs have compiled spring training records of 14-10-1 (1979), 10-10-1 (1980), 8-12 (1981), 14-8-1 (1982), 12-16 (1983), 7-20 (1984) and 18-13-1 (1985). In the last 19 springs, the best Cubs won-lost mark was in 1971 when they went 20-10.

When Chicago returned to Mesa in 1979 it re-established their spring training headquarters in that city after a 14-year hiatus. Previously, the Cubs had trained at Rendevous Park.

Mesa is only the fourth training site used by the Cubs since 1921. The club trained for 26 years (1921-1951 excluding the World War II years) at Catalina Island off the coast of southern California. In 1952 the Cubs moved to Mesa and trained there until 1966 when they moved back to California and Long Beach for one spring. In 1967 the Cubs moved to Scottsdale, AZ and remained there until 1979.

Mesa is located just southeast of Scottsdale and Phoenix and has a population of more than 150,000. HoHoKam Park is located at 1235 North Center Street, just north of Brown Road.

HoHoKam Park opened on March 11, 1977 and was the spring training home of the Oakland A's.
